

The law should not be changed. The Wisconsin No Call List should remain in its present form. If I want to reinstate a service I have dropped I can easily contact that company/representative and do not wish to be bothered which is the reason for the list.